

Film and Television Institute of India, Pune

Date: 2nd July 2018

PRESS RELEASE

INDIAN INFORMATION SERVICE TRAINING PROGRAMME BEGINS IN FTII

A 4-week training programme for Indian Information Service (IIS) officers began at Film and Television Institute of India (FTII) today.

16 Officer Trainees (11 men, 5 women) , currently in their Induction Course at Indian Institute of Mass Communications (IIMC), New Delhi will undergo their annual month-long training in TV Production and Film Appreciation at FTII. Almost all the trainee officers hold Engineering degrees while one of them has a MBBS degree.

The training programme was inaugurated in FTII today by Mohan Agashe, veteran theatre & film actor and former FTII Director, in the presence of Bhupendra Kainthola, Director, FTII; Prakash Magdum, Director, NFAI; Varun Bhardwaj, Registrar, FTII; Keerti Tiwari, Deputy Director, NFAI; R N Pathak, Dean (TV) and Amit Tyagi, Dean (Films).

